Student Ambassador Request Form

A Student Ambassador is an upper-class student (undergraduate, graduate, and PhD) who excels both in and outside of the classroom. He/she is knowledgeable about The Patton College of Education and Human Services and can offer a student's perspective on programs, classes, clubs, and social activities. An Ambassador can help with college fairs, presentations, Q & A sessions, CEHS events, etc. Please note that this request form does not guarantee that an Ambassador will be available to be assigned to your event. Once ambassador availabilities have been checked and verified, you will be notified of their assignment to your event in the form of a confirmation email.
